

Contents

| | |
|--|-------|
| Foreword, Imran A. Andrabi, MD, FAAFP | xv |
| Preface | xix |
| Acknowledgments | xxvii |
| Introduction, Carson F. Dye | 1 |
| Strong Physician Engagement Is No Longer a Luxury As Healthcare Organizations Grow Larger, Consolidation Is Inevitable | 3 |
| Physicians Are Already Highly Engaged Individuals | 4 |
| Physician Engagement Is Complicated | 4 |
| Engagement Is Not Synonymous with Alignment | 5 |
| There Still Exists a Physician Mystique | 5 |
| Physician Leadership Is a Key Component of Engagement | 6 |
| Physicians Are Not All Cut Out of the Same Cloth | 6 |
| Strong Physician Engagement Is Possible | 6 |
| Tolerating a Conclusion Is Not the Same as Embracing It | 7 |
| Overview of Chapters | 8 |
| 1. Employee Engagement: Precursor to Physician Engagement, Carson F. Dye | 13 |
| Ambiguity About the Concept of Employee Engagement | 14 |

| | |
|---|----|
| The Literature on Employee Engagement | 15 |
| Three Parts of Employee Engagement | 18 |
| The Emerging Science of Engagement Through Visualization and Storytelling | 19 |
| Engagement: More than Happiness or Satisfaction | 20 |
| Conclusion | 20 |
| 2. Literature on Physician Engagement, Carson F. Dye | 27 |
| Overviews in the Literature | 28 |
| Traditional Views of Physician Engagement | 28 |
| The Many Views of Physician Engagement | 30 |
| Conclusion | 39 |
| 3. Physician Engagement Models, Carson F. Dye | 45 |
| A Two-Factor Model | 45 |
| An Eight-Factor Model | 51 |
| Conclusion | 58 |
| Chapter Appendix | 61 |
| 4. Aiming to Better Understand Physicians, Douglas A. Spotts | 65 |
| A Unique Learning Style | 65 |
| A Never-Fail Attitude | 67 |
| Cooperativeness and Creativity | 67 |
| A Tendency to Question Everything | 69 |
| Change Management | 70 |
| From Engagement to Leadership: How Physicians Can Develop into Engaged Leaders | 74 |
| Advantages of Having Physicians at the Table | 77 |
| Beyond Engagement to Alignment: Case Study | 78 |
| Physician Leaders in Stressful Times | 80 |
| Potential for Burnout | 81 |
| Physicians Develop “Range” | 83 |
| Conclusion | 83 |

| | | |
|----|---|-----|
| 5. | Larger Paddles and Bigger Boats, Lisa M. Casey | 87 |
| | The Evolving Qualities of Excellent Physicians | 89 |
| | Consequences of Disenfranchised Physicians | 92 |
| | The Boat as a Metaphor | 93 |
| | Concrete Ideas to Emphasize the What, the Why, and Trust | 102 |
| | Conclusion | 104 |
| 6. | Physicians as Leaders, Carson F. Dye | 107 |
| | Can We Say All Physicians Are Leaders? | 107 |
| | Does Clinical Practice Have Similarities to Leadership? | 108 |
| | How Do Physicians Become Leaders? | 110 |
| | Physician Leaders Have a Significant Influence on Engagement | 115 |
| | Do More than Simply Ask Physicians for Their Input | 116 |
| | Provide for Camaraderie and Community in the Work | 118 |
| | Leadership Can Help with Burnout | 120 |
| | Are Physicians Different? | 120 |
| | Chief Medical Officers Cannot Do It All | 122 |
| | Conclusion | 123 |
| 7. | Visual and Participative Concepts That Apply to Physician Engagement, Kalen Stanton | 127 |
| | Visualization | 128 |
| | Getting Physicians in the Game | 135 |
| | Bringing It All Together | 137 |
| | It's Worth It | 139 |
| | Join the Visual Movement | 140 |
| | Value in Real Time | 141 |
| | Conclusion | 142 |

| | | |
|-----|---|-----|
| 8. | How Physicians Feel Engagement; How Leaders Enhance It, Harjot Singh | 145 |
| | Engagement at an Individual Level | 148 |
| | Three Personal Benefits of Flow | 154 |
| | Common Missteps in Efforts to Enhance Physician Engagement | 156 |
| | Key Questions to Ensure That Engagement Happens | 161 |
| | Organizations Without Physician Engagement Programs | 162 |
| | Conclusion | 163 |
| 9. | The Economic Model: Does Money Generate Engagement? Carson F. Dye | 167 |
| | Factors Affecting Motivation | 170 |
| | Insights from Physician Leaders | 173 |
| | Conclusion | 180 |
| 10. | Mine for Conflict, Jeremy Blanchard | 185 |
| | Conflict over Delivery of Care | 186 |
| | Conflict of Professionalism | 186 |
| | Conflicts of Leading with Power | 188 |
| | Conflict of the Story That Never Happened | 189 |
| | Healthcare, the Perfect Milieu for Breeding Conflict | 190 |
| | How Does Conflict Mining Accelerate Your Leadership Success? | 191 |
| | How to Mine for Conflict | 192 |
| | Concrete Tactics for Facing Conflict | 193 |
| | Pitfalls to Avoid in Conflict | 198 |
| | Using a Dashboard to Improve the Value of Conflict | 199 |
| | Exercises to Develop Key Skills | 200 |
| | Conclusion | 202 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| 11. Gender Issues, Kathleen L. Forbes | 205 |
| Let's Review the Data | 206 |
| Career Decision Challenges During Training | 208 |
| Challenges with Selecting a Professional Practice | 210 |
| Implicit Gender Bias | 211 |
| Developing Female Physicians Leadership and Engagement | 212 |
| Ten Suggestions for Healthcare Organizations to Engage Female Physicians | 214 |
| Conclusion | 218 |
| 12. Cognitive Diversity, Raúl Zambrano | 223 |
| The Challenge | 224 |
| Providers as UREMs | 225 |
| The Patients | 227 |
| The Providers | 228 |
| Management of Physicians | 228 |
| Trust | 230 |
| Communication | 231 |
| Meetings | 234 |
| Burnout | 236 |
| Conclusion | 237 |
| 13. Physician Flourishing; Moving Past Burnout, Katherine A. Meese and Andrew N. Garman | 243 |
| What Does Flourishing Mean? | 244 |
| Positive Emotion | 245 |
| Engagement | 245 |
| Relationships | 246 |
| Meaning | 246 |
| Accomplishment | 247 |
| Individual-Level Interventions | 248 |

| | |
|--|-----|
| Team-Level Interventions | 252 |
| Organization-Level Interventions | 256 |
| Policy-Level Considerations | 257 |
| Conclusion | 259 |
| 14. Getting to “Us” from “We Versus They,” Robert Dean | 263 |
| Why Financial Incentives Are Not Enough | 264 |
| Physicians as Beneficiaries | 265 |
| What Creates Engagement? | 267 |
| Considerations for an Organizational Engagement Structure | 271 |
| Conclusion | 280 |
| Conclusion: Summing Up the Experts’ Knowledge, Carson F. Dye | 283 |
| Understanding Physicians | 284 |
| Giving Physicians a Bigger Role | 284 |
| Recognizing Physicians as Leaders | 284 |
| Ensuring a Line of Sight and Participation | 285 |
| Understanding How Physicians Feel Engagement | 285 |
| Considering Compensation | 286 |
| Managing Conflict | 286 |
| Paying Strict Attention to Diversity and Gender Matters | 286 |
| Helping Physicians Find Their Flow and Flourish | 287 |
| Ending Administrative–Physician Competition | 287 |
| Index | 289 |
| About the Editor | 291 |
| About the Contributors | 293 |