

Contents

Preface	xi
Chapter One: Basic Responsibilities of a Board and Its Members
Main Responsibilities of the Governing Board	1
Strategic Planning	5
Basic Legal Duties	7
Committees	9
Responsibilities of Individual Board Members	13
Responsibilities of the Board Chair	17
Job Descriptions	18
Online Resources for Board Governance Information	22
Chapter Two: How to Operate Your Board
Optimum Board Size	25
Frequency of Board Meetings	26
Information Needed for Board Meetings	27
Executive Sessions	29
Selecting a Board Chair	29
Term Limits	31
Age Limits	35
Paying Directors	36
Structure of the Annual Retreat	37
Board Self-Assessment Process and Sample Assessment Tool	42
Dealing with a Disruptive or Inattentive Board Member	47
Chapter Three: How to Build Your Board
Selecting New Members	51
Recruiting for Diversity	52
Selecting the Right Physicians for the Board	55
Considering Individuals from Outside the Community for the Board	61
Effective Orientation for New Board Members	63
Chapter Four: How to Work with the CEO
Relationship with the Chief Executive Officer	67
Governance Versus Management	70
Expectations When Working with a CEO	72
CEO Succession Planning	74
Chapter Five: How to Ensure Quality Care
Monitoring Quality of Healthcare	79

Michael Pugh, president, Verisma Systems, Inc.
The Joint Commission	89
Cathy Barry-Ipema, chief communications officer, The Joint Commission
Driving Accountability for Improved Quality and Outcomes in Your Community: Business Coalitions on Health	92
Donna Marshall, executive director, Colorado Business Group on Health
Chapter Six: How to Provide Fiscal Oversight
Dennis Stillman, University of Washington, Seattle
Necessary Financial Information	103
Financial Oversight	103
Analyzing Financial Statements and Monitoring Financial Performance	106
Profitability Ratios.	112
Conclusion	116
Chapter Seven: How to Work with the Community
Stakeholders	119
Kenneth Bopp, clinical professor, Health Management & Informatics Group, University of Missouri, Columbia
Health Status of the Community	125
Errol L. Biggs
Chapter Eight: The Board and Nonconventional Medicine
Sita Ananth, director of Knowledge Services, Samuelli Institute
Complementary and Alternative Medicine	131
Glossary of Complementary and Alternative Medicine Terms	134
Epilogue	141
Appendix One: Sample Conflict of Interest Policy	143
Gregory Piche, Singularity Legal and Office of the Attorney General, State of Minnesota
Appendix Two: Sample Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement	147
Gregory Piche, Singularity Legal and Office of the Attorney General, State of Minnesota
Appendix Three: Sample Board Member Performance Appraisal, Short Version	151
Appendix Four: Sample Board Member Performance Appraisal, Long Version	153
Appendix Five: Sample CEO Employment Contract	157

American College of Healthcare Executives

Appendix 6: CEO Separation Agreement169

American College of Healthcare Executives

Appendix 7: Common Healthcare Abbreviations and Definitions.181

Iowa Hospital Association

Index 199

About the Author 208